

TexasBank Marketing and Communications
AVP – Marketing Director Amy Gill
Amy.Gill@TexasBank.com

TexasBank.com

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TexasBank adds proven trio of DFW construction lenders to its expanding CRE team

August 2024 – Fort Worth, Texas

Lee Herron, Mike Monroe, and Mark Piland have all joined TexasBank as Senior Vice Presidents in Commercial Lending, further advancing the bank’s growing presence in construction lending across DFW and all North Texas.

“We are really excited to welcome a team like this to the TexasBank brand,” said President and CEO Greg Dodds. “Their reputation precedes them, especially with their long-time customers who have come to depend upon the extraordinary service and insight they provide.” TexasBank Chief Lending Officer Lin Bearden lauded the distinguished group. “These guys are truly the cream of the crop when it comes to DFW construction lending. They have a deep knowledge of the North Texas market. It’s no wonder they have had so much success over the years.”

Lee Herron has joined the bank as Senior Vice President and Commercial Lender. Lee, almost legendary in banking circles, has more than 50 years of lending experience and a vast portfolio of loyal customers. Herron’s area of expertise focuses on financing residential homebuilders and residential lot developers. Lee and his family live in Colleyville. He is actively involved in the Midwest Food Bank, MidCities SOS, raising funds for Safehaven of Tarrant County and holds membership in the Fort Worth Mortgage Bankers Association and Greater Fort Worth Builders Association.

Mike Monroe brings over 25 years of lending experience to TexasBank and is also a Senior Vice President and Commercial Lender. A graduate of SWGSB in 2008, Mike has vast experience not only as a commercial lender, but with a successful mortgage portfolio as well. He is successful in not only lending but also for managing/training junior commercial lenders and providing guidance to his numerous customers. Mike has a penchant for getting deals to the table in the construction and commercial lending arena. He is also active in numerous charitable efforts, including the Midwest Food Bank.

Mark Piland has been helping Texas builders and developers for nearly 15 years and joins the bank as a Senior Vice President and commercial lender as well, bringing extraordinary analytical skills to the credit function. A favorite among his customers for unrivaled service, Mark is avid golfer and member of several professional clubs and networking groups across Dallas and North Texas.

TexasBank is a multi-generational, full-service community bank with 16 locations serving West Texas, Central Texas, and the DFW Metroplex. The bank is a member of the FDIC and an Equal Housing Lender.

###